LR 67
LB 518, 290

CLERK: Mr. President, the Appropriations Committee gives notice that they will hold a hearing on the Legislative Council budget at 4:30, Monday, May 2nd in Room 1019. Signed, Senator Warner. Mr. President, Senator Luedtke, explanation of vote on LB 7. Mr. President, Senator Simon asked to be excused on Friday, 4-29. Mr. President, a resolution introduced by Senators Dworak, F. Lewis, Marvel, Clark, Murphy, Keyes and Newell, members of the Miscellaneous Subjects Committee, calling for an interim study to review the accessibility of criminal records. (LR 67). This will be referred to the Executive Board. Mr. President, Senator Goodrich asks unanimous consent to print amendments in the Journal to LB 518. That is all, Mr. President. Now LB 290. There are E & R amendments on LB 290.

PRESIDENT: Senator Cullan, do you want to move the E & R amendments on LB 290.

SENATOR CULLAN: Mr. President, members of the Legislature. I move the E & R amendments to LB 290 be adopted.

PRESIDENT: Discussion? All in favor say aye. Contrary say nay. They are adopted.

CLERK: Now, Mr. President, there are a series of amendments on the bill. The first one is offered by Senator Kelly. It's found on page 1610 of the Legislative Journal.

PRESIDENT: Don't run. We'll wait for you, Senator Kelly. Page 1610.

SENATOR KELLY: Mr. President, members of the Legislature. LB 290 is having a little tortuous life as it winds its way through this Legislature. Senator Labedz, with members of the Certified Public Accounting Profession, the Revenue Department, and the Auditor's Office have worked diligently lining up an amendment that really puts this bill all in perspective. In respect to the work that has been done I respectfully request unanimous consent to withdraw my amendment.

PRESIDENT: Senator Marsh. I'm sorry. Alright. Do you have another amendment?

CLERK: The next amendment is offered by Senator Rasmussen, also found on page 1610 of the Journal.

SENATOR RASMUSSEN: Mr. President, members of the body. Senator Kelly said that there has been an agreement reached. I would ask for unanimous consent to withdraw my amendment.

PRESIDENT: Alright, it's withdrawn.

CLERK: Mr. President, the next amendment is a computer print-out offered by Senator Labedz, which is...I don't have it in the Journal, but it's a seven page amendment.

SENATOR LABEDZ: Mr. President, members of the Legislature. I think by now each member of this body does have a copy of the amendment to 290 on their desk. I do want to tell you also that this is Senator DeCamp's bill, but before he left for the hospital he agreed that an amendment should be put out by myself in cooperation with Bill Peters, with the De-
